

STATUTORY INSTRUMENT
No. 49 of 1982.

BELIZE:

REGULATIONS made by the Minister responsible for Social Security in exercise of the powers vested in him by sections 58 and 66 of the Social Security Ordinance 1979, (no. 6 of 1979) and all other powers thereunto him enabling.

(Gazetted 26th June, 1982)

1. These Regulations may be cited as the

SOCIAL SECURITY (GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES)
REGULATIONS 1982.

2. Where any public officer, police officer, teacher or any other Government employee is entitled to receive any sickness benefit or maternity benefit under the General Orders, the Government Worker's Rules or any other Rules or Regulations for the time being in force as well as from the Social Security Fund and receives any amount by the way of such benefit from the Government, the Government shall be entitled to recover from the Social Security Board so much of the amount as such public officer, police officer, teacher or other Government employee is entitled to under the Social Security Law, and the Social Security Board shall pay that amount to the Government in full satisfaction of any claim by any such public officer, police officer, teacher or other Government employee.

3.--(1) Subject to the provisions of subregulation 2 hereof a public officer, police officer, teacher or other Government employee who is entitled to and receives any sickness benefit or maternity benefit from the Government shall not receive sickness benefits or maternity benefits from the Social Security Fund for that same period.

(2) Where the sickness benefits or maternity benefits under the Social Security Law are more favourable than those under the General Orders for the public service, the Government Worker's Rules or other Rules or Regulations then in any such case an officer shall be entitled to receive from the Social Security Board the difference between those benefits under the Social Security Scheme and those entitlement under the General Orders, Government Workers Rules or other Rules or Regulations.

4. These Regulations shall not in any way affect the entitlement to a maternity grant provided for under the SOCIAL SECURITY (BENEFIT) REGULATIONS 1980.

5. These Regulations shall come into force on the 19th day of June, 1982
